It is alleged that Khairlah Aslam, 30, hit a 24-year-old woman and her seven-year-old dog, repeatedly, in the Riyadh region city of Dammam. Ms Aslam and her 21-year-old Saudi husband have been arrested and a prosecutor is now seeking a custody order, say officials. Ms Aslam was released after 10 days. The accused are accused of causing injury and inflicting harm by beating and starving, the Saudi Commission for Promotion of Virtue and Prevention of Vice said in a statement. A British embassy spokesman said: "We are aware of the situation but we are not able to provide any further comment at this time." The woman had worked as a maid in Saudi Arabia but left earlier in the year, according to the Foreign Office. She was in Bahrain when the incident happened and moved to the UK in the same month. Ms Aslam was arrested by police and then held in a holding room in a deportation centre in the city. She was subsequently released on bail. Her husband was arrested the same day at his home in the city and later released
